July 2018.

INSTRUCTIONS TO AUTHORS SUMMARY

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

- Authors are requested to submit papers in ONE FILE ONLY, with tables and figures embedded in the text which should be in Microsoft Word.
- Authors requiring audio-visual equipment to aid in presentation of papers during Conference are requested to submit PowerPoint files to the Presentation Coordinator no later than 19 March 2019 to enable checks on compatibility prior to the conference.
- Papers and posters should demonstrate how their findings impact on: Optimal use of resources; Profitability; Problem solving; and/or People to demonstrate relevance to the sugar industry.
- Special consideration and encouragement will be given to practical grower and mill-based papers that highlight achievements in the adoption of innovative practices that are resulting in positive changes on farms and in factories. Ideally, these papers should be written by combinations of growers, mill staff, scientists and extension officers.
- Five types of papers will be considered:
 - Peer-reviewed papers – detailed information published, with a 15-minute oral presentation followed by 5 minutes for questions and comments.
 - Short papers – new work published in outline without full disclosure of information, with a 10-minute presentation followed by 5 minutes for questions and comments.
 - Extended abstracts – information or work related to sugar technology but either published elsewhere or outside of the scope of the conference, with a 10-minute oral presentations followed by 5 minutes for questions and comments.
 - Posters – published abstract, a 5-minute oral presentation and attendance at a relevant poster-viewing session.
 - Presentations by industry equipment exhibitors – non-peer reviewed published extended abstract of a case study/studies showing the benefits of new product(s), service(s) and/or technology, with a 10-minute oral presentation.
- The 2019 Conference Proceedings will be published in electronic form only on a USB memory stick. There will not be a printed version of the Proceedings.
- A book of Abstracts will be provided to all Members and Conference delegates.
